

NEWS RELEASE*24th May 2016*INDUSTRY'S TOP TRIO CONFIRMED FOR CeMAT AUSTRALIA

The nation's largest intralogistics and materials handling show has confirmed three of Asia-Pacific's leading system suppliers to exhibit at CeMAT Australia, at Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre from 12 – 14 July 2016.

Daifuku, SSI Schaefer and Dematic, three major system suppliers in the materials handling and logistics industry, as named by Modern Materials Handling, will be on show at CeMAT Australia, meeting with attendees and demonstrating the latest developments in materials handling and warehousing.

In addition to these top system suppliers, CeMAT Australia will also welcome providers of materials handling equipment, software solutions and warehouse accessories, to name but a few.

Daifuku is the largest material handling supplier in the world. From factory and distribution automation to lifestyle products, the team from Daifuku will be sharing their knowledge of unique warehouse and manufacturing automation solutions and its applications for an industry seeking optimum efficient operations.

SSI Schaefer, the market leader in the field of planning and implementing integrated logistics systems, will share how its unique offering can increase companies' efficiency.

Between SSI Schaefer and Daifuku delegates will be able to tap into 100 years' experience.

Dematic, a supplier of integrated automated technology, software and services to optimise the supply chain, will mark its 50th anniversary in Australia and New Zealand as the team showcases the stalwart's extensive solutions at the event.

Brad Jackson, Chief Operating Officer at Daifuku, said: "We're looking forward to CeMAT Australia in July, to strengthen our relationship with the industry and the partners we already work with.

"Our ability to deliver end to end solutions is second to none. This starts from conceptual master planning, business and operational modelling right through to warehouse designs and project execution. CeMAT Australia is the ideal platform to demonstrate this to the industry firsthand."

CeMAT is the world's leading trade show for supply chain management and the intralogistics industry. This year's event is set to provide a hub of interactivity, education and knowledge exchange.

The confirmation of Daifuku, SSI Schaefer and Dematic makes it clear that CeMAT Australia is a must-attend event for anyone working in the industry or anyone who is using these systems on a regular basis, says Sarah Haughey, Show Director of CeMAT Australia.

"The event is set to bring the industry together so exhibitors and attendees can share knowledge, experience the latest advances in logistics and warehousing, and find out more about how these technologies apply to a variety of industries from FMCG to construction," said Ms Haughey.

The show will feature the Knowledge Theatre, which has been created to provide an open platform on the show floor for industry leaders from a range of markets and sectors to give insight through case study driven presentations. With up to 30 presentations, attendees will gain priceless insights into how companies have overcome common problems, implemented leading solutions and how the sector is moving into the future.
